

MESSAGE OF THE MONTH

The Acid Test of Being a Christian by Dr. Tim Keller

"See how great a love the Father has bestowed on us, that we would be called children of God; and such we are! For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not appeared as yet what we will be. We know that when He appears, we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is." (1 John 3:1-3)

The mark of knowing God is that you see God's love for you as a miracle. Notice this: it says "how great". In the old King James it says "behold, what manner of love." Here it says, "how great a love" [NAS]. There is a Greek word that is used here that they are translating as "great" and the problem with the word is that it is an idiom. Idiomatic expressions are very hard to translate literally. We have an idiomatic expression: "it's raining cats and dogs." Ok so if you are trying to translate that into Cantonese, German or into Japanese -- if you just say literally in those languages "it's raining cats and dogs" they will look at you: "what are you talking about?" You will have to find an idiomatic expression that is parallel or coordinate to that. Literally it says "behold, what country this love comes from" What this statement is really saying is "from what planet... how unreal...off the scale".

Here is the way you can tell whether you are a Christian or just a moral person ... a Christian or a religious person. A real Christian is a person who says, "it is an absolute miracle that God loves me." "It's just a miracle that I am a Christian." This is actually an acid test; let me just lay it on you here. There are two kinds of people that go to church: religious people and real Christians. And the way you can tell the difference is that a Real Christian is somebody who sees everything that comes as a gift. In other words a real Christian sees that you are totally in debt to God, but a religious person is someone who is working hard and making an effort and trying to be good, going to Bible studies and just saying "no" everywhere, and denying themselves a lot of pleasures, and so forth, and a religious person is someone who is trying to put God in their debt. That is the difference. A religious person is someone who is trying to save themselves through their good works. A religious person is somebody who thinks they are putting God in their debt since they have tried so hard. A Christian is somebody who sees themselves as in God's debt.

Here is the acid test: If you are a Christian you have a spirit of wonder that permeates your life. You are always saying "how miraculous", "how interplanetary", "how unreal". You are always looking at yourself and saying, "me a Christian ... incredible, miraculous, unbelievable, a joke!!!" but a person who is trying to put God in their debt - there is none of that spirit of wonder at all. For example, when you show up to get your paycheck. I am assuming that most of you work hard for your money. When you show up for your paycheck do you say "Ah, BEHOLD!, you've paid me, you've given me money! Oh! Are you real?" No, you don't do that, you say "of course you paid me, I worked." If you ask a religious person who does not understand the grace of God, you say, "Are you a Christian?" They say "Of course I am a Christian, I have always been a Christian. Sure I am a Christian." My friends, if you are a Christian there is no "sure" about it and there is no "of course" about it, not a bit.

The acid test is your spirit of wonder stays there even when things go bad. You see when things go bad, when problems happen, here you can tell the difference between a moralist and a Christian. A moralist says, "what good is all my religion, what good is going to God, I have tried hard to be a Christian, I am trying hard to be obedient to God, and what good is it? God owes me." And you see you get mad. You say, "I have been trying hard and look what's going on in my love life, look what's going on in my career", and you get bitter. Why? Because God owes you. But A Christian keeps that spirit of wonder. A Christian may say "my career has not gone too well, my love life has not gone too well, it's astonishing... It's amazing that God is as good as He is to me. It's all grace. It's all grace." That spirit of wonder. That sense of being a miracle. That everything that comes to you being an absolute mercy. That is an acid test. In fact, in some ways I have made a dichotomy that is unrealistic. Christians, to the degree that you behold the free grace of God, to the degree that you meditate on it and you let it become a holy fire in your heart, to the degree you experience and behold the love of God, to that degree you are going to find that to difficulties you will be able to say "oh well, my Father must have a purpose here because He loves me, and besides that, He does not owe me a good life. He owes me a far worse life than I've got." You can handle anything. And when good things come you will say "Behold! what a miracle". And the very fact you can get up in the morning and say, "I am a Christian. Who would have thought it?" There is a spirit of wonder about you, and if you have lost that you are slipping back into moralism, you are slipping back into thinking "well I guess what it means to be a Christian is just to do." Here is Christianity:

*"And can it be that I should gain an interest in the Saviour's blood!
 Died he for me? who caused his pain!
 For me? who him to death pursued?
 Amazing love! How can it be that thou, my God, shouldst die for me?"*

Marriage Enrichment Day

29th October 2011

What a blessing it is when God gives rich life experience and wisdom to an older and wiser marriage, and channels that into a younger and blossoming one. We are looking forward to Keith and Sarah Condie sharing from the Bible, marriage research, and stories from their 29 year-old marriage. Couples will be given a safe place to listen, discuss freely, laugh, cry and look forward to bringing more God-honouring marriages to their children, church and community. In a generation when marriage is under threat, this will be a great help to marriages across the inner west.

PEOPLE YOU MEET AT BARNEYS

NOT FOR WEB BULLETIN

Each month we will feature a couple of people who are members of our congregations. This month we meet _ & Cameron. This is a little bit about them.

My name is Cameron Patrick

I am... a 2nd year studying B Ed Secondary: (Human and Health Education), which is a fancy name for PE teaching.

My favourite bible verse is Ephesians 2:8. It constantly reminds that its all about Jesus, not me!

At Barneys, I most enjoy communal worship, singing and praising Jesus with other people that love and live for Jesus. Such a blessing and encouragement!!!

One thing God is currently teaching me is to be content and joyful in all situations. Whether I be stressing with assignments or bludging at college, I'm striving to be constantly joyful in what Jesus has accomplished on the cross for me.

In the Bible, I identify most with the Pharisees. My default setting is to do things for God to accept me and be seen by others as 'spiritual' Rather than getting real with people and more importantly with GOD.

I really like James Piggott!!!

I'm talented at eating pancakes! Ask Charlie Cull. I am a champion at eating pancakes.

"The lot is cast into the lap,
but its every decision is from the LORD."
Proverbs 16:33

"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—<sup>9</sup> not by works, so that no one can boast."
Ephesians 2:8

Please support our cross-cultural partners:

Barneys has gospel partners all over the world. We partner with them by praying for them, caring for them and supporting their work financially. We encourage each individual and growth group at Barneys to choose at least one cross-cultural partner to support.

Get regular prayer points to help you pray:

- Each of our cross-cultural partners has a supporters' group on the Barneys Online Community (CCB). Log on, search for a partners' group by name, then join the group.
- Fill in a communication slip with your name, email, and the name of the partners you'd like to support.

Giving financially in addition to your regular Barneys giving:

- Email caroline.evenden@barneys.org.au for information about supporting any of our cross-cultural partners.
- To give a regular or one-off donation, put a clearly marked donation in the Barneys offertory bag or make a clearly marked transfer into the Barneys bank account (details page 8).

Kath & Kimsoeun Seat

Kath and Kimsoeun are serving in Cambodia. They are currently in Sydney while Kimsoeun studies for a Masters in Theology at SMBC; Katherine is working with Credo at UTS.

The Seats' update and prayer points:

- Thank God for the new international students in FOCUS at UTS. Katherine has 6 students in her small group who are new to Credo small groups. Pray that as they study Genesis and Ephesians they will understand what Jesus has done for them, and put their faith in him. Pray for 2 Chinese students 'D' and 'A', who are open to knowing more.
- Please pray for Savet, a recent Bible school graduate, as he begins leading the church in Preah Vihear province. Pray for him to have wisdom and love as he works out his role. The church meets in his mother's house.
- Thank God Soeun has completed 2 subjects towards his Masters and found them useful!
- Thank God for his provision so far. Over the next months/years we are hoping to develop relationship with more partners as they continue study and work here, and prepare for Cambodia. Pray that God will provide more financial partners, for this period as well as long term.

John & Janelle Menear

John is Rector of St Andrew's Church Kowloon, a church with a wide variety of ministries, located in the heart of the commercial area of Hong Kong. Janelle pastors many of the women.

The Menears' update and prayer points:

Please pray with us for St Andrews:

- Give thanks for the summer program children have enthusiastically taken part in. They have a real gift in bringing things together like this and from the children's perspective they have really enjoyed themselves and learnt a lot.
- Carol is settling in well as the Director of Children's ministry. Remember the volunteers as they get ready for the beginning of our church year.
- Keep in your prayers the increasing numbers of children attending who are from Christian families.
- Pray with us for the many changes happening which will bring challenges for us. We now have new service times - three morning congregations, one afternoon and one evening service.
- That more volunteers step up in various ministries enabling smooth transition.
- That the pastors and teachers will not be distracted from their preparation.
- That the members of the congregation (who experience the difficulties with changes) have foremost in their minds how they can love, welcome and serve others.
- And, that these changes will give us opportunities to grow in Christian service and maturity.

Our partner churches in Manila, the Philippines

Pray for Calvary Christian Church, Pasig City.

News from Laguna (outreach area in the Philippines - rural area just outside Manila):

- Praise God! Great things are happening in Laguna
- Church services are run from a two-unit house. Praise God for the provision of the house.
- Nelson and Elaine Praxidio are supervising the livelihood program and church, assisted by Mark. Praise God for their dedication to serve the local people and pray that they would be encouraged and sustained.
- Praise God for the fruits of this work! In June, 47 people were water baptized at Laguna outreach.

Ruth Brigden

Ruth is working amongst youth in the south east Arnhem Land community of Numbulwar. She is continuing to learn the Kriol language.

Ruth's update and prayer points:

Thank you for upholding Ruth so faithfully in prayer. This month's matters for praise and prayer:

Praise Points:

- For the Indigenous Anglican Church's annual "Bible Convention" which ran for a week last month in Ngukurr. There were a number of disruptions to the program, but it was great that a small number studied 1 Peter together for the week.
- For a recent trip out to Yirrkala (Gove) – a good time of rest and refreshment.
- For the faithfulness of Indigenous Christians in the face of sickness and death. There have been a number of deaths recently that have left everyone sad and weary. However, Christians in Numbulwar continue to point others to the hope of resurrection life in Jesus.

Prayer Points:

- Please continue in prayer for the Indigenous Clergy serving in remote places- they are often lonely and discouraged. In particular please pray for Numbulwar's Pastor: Gundhu, and for Yulki, serving on Groote Eylandt.
- For Indigenous Youth who attend the Youth Bible Study to grow in their knowledge and love of Jesus.
- For Mandy, the Church Leader who Ruth works most closely with, as she continues with a difficult home life.

PARISH COUNCIL

Summary of August 2011 meeting

The monthly Parish Council meeting was held on 29 August 2011.

At the meeting:

- Mike Paget gave an update on the church's ministry, including the progress of growth groups, Sunday services, and the children and youth ministries.
- The chair of the fundraising committee Peter Stone presented a fundraising report, noting that the outcome of grant applications to government and community donors is not yet known.
- The wardens reported, with thanks, that the new building is progressing well.
- There was a general discussion regarding the possibility of dedicating parts of the new building to prominent previous rectors of Barneys. It was resolved that the Barneys congregation would be consulted regarding these proposals before any final decisions were made.
- The church treasurer Grant Parish tabled a revised draft church budget for 2012, which was discussed at length by Parish Council. In light of the revised draft budget, Parish Council discussed possible uses for the new church building and its estimated income producing potential. There was also a discussion regarding the anticipated project loan and ensuring that the church budget will be in surplus in 2012.

Please join us in giving thanks for the continued good progress on the building. Please pray for wisdom for Parish Council and continued generosity from the Barneys community and other donors.

BUILDING REPORT

A couple of Saturdays ago the Buildcorp project manager, David Stralow, took David and Iain on a tour of the job. One comment he made was how much useful space we were getting in the new building and how well we were using the site. He also mentioned that because the site was so fully used it was a complicated logistic exercise coordinating all the material storage and trades as work progressed.

We are now at the stage where the 'finishing' trades are turning up and we will be seeing the skin on the skeleton. A different sort of attention to detail is now called for as they are starting to build the things we, the users are going to see and touch on a weekly or even daily basis.

It has been hard and challenging work so far but we need to pray for application and attention to detail for the last 6 months of the project.

FUNDRAISING

Fundraising Update

We are in consultation with the Federal Government and have been promised an outcome in the following two weeks in regards to Federal Funding. Mirvac Group is also considering a submission and we have been in contact with the board's Executive Assistant.

We pray for positive outcomes!

The 1000x$1000 campaign has been progressively generating income and we look forward to this continuing in this next month. We are in the process of undertaking a partnership with the National Trust, and running a Conservation Appeal for the Heritage Walk component of the courtyard.

This past month of fundraising has been busy with Barneys Seven Churches Walk. As we now prepare for the next newsletter we are also working with Buildcorp for updates and newsworthy progress.

We also have volunteers processing the latest corporate listing for BRW to find prospects for further donations.
